What does it look like, sound like, and feel like when you're in a group that is not collaborating well?

When I'm in a group I like to; (circle all that apply)

- Share my ideas
- Make sure everyone is working
- Let the teacher know when things aren't going well
- Listen
- Be helpful

- Help people work together
- Do my own thing
- Be with my friends
- Make new friends
- Organize things for the group
- Let other people organize things for the group

What is something that you've experienced in another class that was helpful to you either in becoming a better collaborator or in helping your group collaborate more efficiently?

Share a time when you were in a group that was collaborating really well. Why do you think that was the case? (This could be an in-school or out-of-school experience.)

Share a time when you were in a group that was not collaborating well. Why do you think that was the case? (This could be an in-school or out-of-school experience.)

Have you ever used technology tools to collaborate with classmates? Please describe.

Have you ever used technology tools to collaborate with students in other schools or experts in the field?

How do you think digital collaboration might look similar or different to collaboration face to face?

Do you have any ideas for how we can foster collaboration in our class this year?
